

Senior Market Lamb Mentor Expectations

It is time to give back to the next generation. We are excited to be starting a new program to encourage young people to get started show lambs. So we are looking for 10 senior age youth to serve as mentors and work with these showman. This is a 3 month commitment and will require you to meet with them once a month in person to give guidance on feeding, showmanship, and daily care.

Expectations

- Youth will receive their projects in late January. We would like for you to be at the pickup date on January 15 so you can meet the showman you will be assisting and give any guidance on how to start out.
- You should meet with them in February and help them prepare their lamb for the East Coast Extravaganza. This includes shearing and giving fitting guidance at the show.
- You should meet with them in March to help with showmanship. Check on general health, and guidance going forward.
- Meet with them in April/May to help them prepare their animal which includes shearing for their show.

What do you receive

- What better way to give back to the next generation.
- This looks awesome on a resume.
